

2010 Bonnie Nelson Music Scholarship Winners

Tellico Village Community Concerts recently announced the 2010 winners of the Bonnie Nelson Music Scholarships. This was the second year the scholarship was offered. Twenty-four Loudon County students submitted applications and five received awards:

Laurel Neuzil, a 6th grade student at Fort Loudon Middle School received a Private Music Lessons Award (Clarinet). Laurel's band teacher is Lisa Michaels.

Lorena Hernandez, an 8th grade student at Lenoir City Middle School received an Instrument Purchase Award (Flute). Lorena's band teacher is Laura Bronkala.

Ezekiel Schloss, an 8th grade student at North Middle School received a Carson-Newman Music Camp Award. Ezekiel's band teacher is Wayne Mayes.

Victoria Petty, an 8th grade student at North Middle School received a Music Accessories Award (for her Oboe). Victoria's band teacher is Wayne Mayes.

Brittany Gentry, a 9th grade student at Loudon High School received a Private Music Lessons Award (Trumpet). Brittany's band teacher is Jennifer Borr.

The awards will be available to students beginning this summer and when they return to school in August, at their next grade level.

The Bonnie Nelson Music Scholarships are granted by Tellico Village Community Concerts, Inc. The application period for next year's scholarship awards begins in mid-February, 2011 and concludes at the end of March.

The Bonnie Nelson Music Scholarship Committee wishes to thank all the students who applied this year. We appreciated each student's unique talents and goals as we read and considered your application. We also want to thank the student applicants' teachers and the donors who made these awards possible.

Bob Nelson
Co-Chair, Bonnie Nelson Music Scholarship Committee
Tellico Village Community Concerts, Inc.